

Press Release

Flying C Ranch Rodeo Winter Buckle Series Presents:

Friday Nights Filled with Down Home Family Rodeo Fun!!!!

Flying C Ranch Rodeo Winter Buckle Series is pleased to announce a rodeo of champions. Some of the top cowboys and cowgirls from Texas, Oklahoma and abroad will compete for a buckle as well as great prize money. As the winter approaches there is not a lot of rodeo action. The Texas Rose Horse Park has an outstanding facility with an indoor arena that allows shelter from the weather and an opportunity to witness some great rodeo competition.

The stock contractors, Will and Todd Cook, United Professional Rodeo Association (UPRA) Stock Contractors of the Year 2009 will be providing the some of the stock. Flying C Ranch Rodeo were also voted Saddle Bronc horse and Bull of the UPRA Finals 2009. Danny Reagan, Professional Bull Riders (PBR) stock contractor will provide some of the best stock in the business. This rodeo stock will be available for the cowboys to compete against such as the bull, 4033 Chocolate Chip, that World Champion JB Mauney was disqualified on during a controversial ride in Columbus, Ohio this past year. A round in Connecticut was won on this bull as well when rode by World Champion, Guilherme Marchi. Other great bulls from the PBR tour that will compete are 415 Big Rig that Cody Nance, PBR Rookie of the Year 2009, won a round in Columbus, Ohio, 151 Butt Ugly and many more.

This being a winter series all the top cowboys and cowgirls have to compete in 3 of the 6 rodeo series to win a beautiful Lone Star Buckle. The rodeos will take place Friday nights at 7:30pm on December 11, 2009, as well as throughout the month of January on the 8th, 15th, 22nd, and 29th, 2010 at the Texas Rose Horse Park. Concession is available and general admission is $5.00 per person. A great way to have an outstanding time on a Friday night!!! See ya'll there.
